Messages From Our Leadership

I'm not a sales type. I'm not trying to sell you a used congregation—you've already bought into us. You're reading this pledge brochure because you're already invested in us. You know I mean this; I have pledged for decades and my ministry here is about us, together.

NOW we're free to create. We will have good space and a good person handling our marketing. We get to try new things, try, and maybe fail, but try with energy and drive. We have mourned our building and a depressing pandemic. Entropy is real, all things decline, but that can't define us. We can pledge to imagine new solutions and begin again. We will feel more vital, more adventurous, and more fulfilled as we stand together for what we believe. You are a critical voice and part of what makes us sing joyfully. Pledge like you matter. Live out what matters. Pledge like your values matter. Pledge like your legacy matters. Pledge like you intend to build a more spiritually fulfilling life. Pledge with love.

- Rev. Arlin Roy, Minister

Now is the time when we think about everything that First Unitarian Society of Westchester means to us and ask ourselves how we can support it. How has FUSW made a difference to you? For my part, the FUSW community has comforted me in adversity, encouraged me to spiritual growth, heightened my sense of awe and wonder at life, deepened my feeling of connection with others, and inspired me to work harder for social justice. If FUSW has been meaningful to you, I invite you to make a generous pledge, so that FUSW and its good works will continue, now and into the future.
